Presented by

Scripps Ranch Friends of the Library

Thursdays @ 3pm

Suggested ages 4-11, but all welcome!

June 19 - Raggle Taggle

Raggle Taggle's Safari Band presents a musical adventure with animal songs for all ages. Expect to have fun with props, puppets and audience participation.

June 26 - Hullabaloo

Folksinger Steve brings a musical experience that "puts the music back in kid's music." Fun for kids and parents alike.

July 3 - Pig's Eye Puppets

An experience to behold. One of the most entertaining, original, and beautiful puppet shows in the San Diego area,

July 10 - Pacific Animals

Pacific Animals incorporates "edu-tainment" to provide a safe environment to see, touch and learn about a monkey, fox, parrot, kinkajou, alligator, snake, bugs and more.

July 17 - Craig Newton

Enjoy a fast paced musical performance with Craig Newton. Sing along while he introduces a wide variety of musical instruments.

July 24 - Scott Land Marionettes

Hand-crafted, Old World-Style marionettes; completely contemporary entertainment.

July 31 - Literature Comes to Life

"Dog Breath" and "Down by the Cool of the Pool" come to life with Stacey Wein. Children become characters in the retelling of these stories. Audience participation welcome!

August 7 - Craig Stone

Tap your feet/clap your paws for a Magical Performance by Magician Craig Stone.

August 14 - Mad Science

"Wild About Science". Come take an exciting journey with Mad Science through the world of animals. Learn about arctic animals, animals that thrive off lava, and get slimed by a mysterious sea creature!
